Welcome to the Emeritus Institute

The Saddleback College Emeritus Institute was established as a unique educational opportunity for the pursuit and enhancement of lifelong learning for the adult population. As an integral part of the Saddleback College curriculum, the Emeritus Institute is a leader in providing challenging and rewarding programs specifically designed for older adults.

Since its inception in 1976, this college department has increased its course offerings to over 150 classes held during the day at more than 25 convenient locations and successfully serves over 20,000 students annually.

The name Emeritus refers to people "retired with honor." All seniors are welcome. For more information, call the Emeritus office at Saddleback College 949-582-4835 or 770-9669 at Laguna Woods Village
