SECTION V: SCREENING PROCESS

1. Determination of Application Completeness: The OHR will screen all applicants for minimum qualifications as specified in the official announcement for that position before submission to the Committee, thereby determining applicants who will be paper screened and eligible for interviewing. The Search Committee Chair has the option to be involved in the minimum qualification screening process.

On the basis of the lowest qualifying score, the OHR shall assemble a list of candidates to be interviewed.
6. Interview Scheduling: The OHR shall schedule selected candidates for a first-level interview, according to the schedule adopted by the Committee, giving them at least five business days notice of the interview. Exceptions to the five-day notice may be granted by the Vice Chancellor or designee.

6. Writing Sample: The candidate will be asked to provide a writing sample in response to a question provided to the candidate by the Search Committee before the interview.
7. Questions: Each candidate will be asked the same interview questions in the same order. During the interview, follow-up questions may be asked to clarify or further investigate a response given by a candidate. If, in the judgment of the HR Specialist, a follow-up question violates standards of non-discrimination, the HR Specialist will direct the candidate to disregard the question. Follow-up questions should be kept to a minimum to maintain consistent standards of candidate evaluation throughout the interview process. Any question by the candidate pertaining to conditions of employment, such as salary, benefits, or policy, must be referred to the OHR.
8. Group Discussion: Committee members shall be given an opportunity to discuss each applicant and only that applicant after each interview. Comprehensive discussion shall not take place until after all interviews are completed. No discussion of any candidate may take place unless the HR Specialist and all committee members are present. Committee members are encouraged to discuss candidates' fulfillment of job-related criteria in a candid and thorough manner, but shall not discuss specific numeric scores to be given to any candidate. The HR Specialist shall be responsible for ensuring that discussion is limited to job-related criteria.
9. Score: Each Committee member is responsible for exercising his or her independent judgment in rating each candidate. Following the Committee's discussion of the candidates, each committee member shall rate independently each candidate using the appropriate form provided by the OHR. At the conclusion of the interviews and any subsequent discussion, each member of the Committee shall enter a final interview score for each candidate, and then calculate the final total score from the appropriately weighted screening and interview scores. The OHR will verify and compile final scores for all candidates.
10. Selection of Finalists: After the conclusion of interviews, the Chair and the HR Specialist shall assemble a ranked list of candidates and their final scores. Using this list, the Committee will determine the lowest score to qualify as a preliminary finalist for a second level interview. The committee shall provide job related reason why a candidate interviewed is not forwarded to the second level for final interviews.

The committee shall forward at least three (3) finalists for second level interview.

SECTION VII: REFERENCE CHECKS

3. Reference Contacts: The Vice Chancellor, in conjunction with the Chair, will conduct the reference checks and record the information on the appropriate OHR form. The HR Specialist will verify all data on the application.

Each reference for each finalist shall be asked the same questions about that finalist, and shall be asked whether he or she can recommend the finalist in question without reservation, and, if not, to specify these reservations. The reference checker(s) shall ask no question that is impermissible under applicable laws prohibiting discrimination in employment, or that seeks information unrelated to the qualifications for the position. The reference checker(s) shall not provide any derogatory or confidential information about the finalist, and shall not provide with any assessment of the quality of the finalist's qualifications.

4. Content: The Board may ask any job-related questions, may ask follow-up questions, and may provide clarification of ambiguous or unclear questions. The Vice Chancellor or designee must review any questions, exercises or other requirements prior to the interview to ensure compliance with district policies and State and Federal laws and regulations.

5. Substantially Similar Interviews: Although variations are permitted throughout the interview process, the Board shall give each candidate a substantially similar interview of approximately the same duration, involving the same segments and exercises.
6. Additional Interviews: After completing this initial round of second level interviews, the Board of Trustees has the authority to interview additional candidates from the first level interview pool in the order of the next highest Search Committee rankings.
7. Consultation: The Board may consult with the Chair of the committee after the second-level interviews and before any offer of employment is made.
